FIRST DISQUALIFICATION

TITO FINISHES FIRST IN HIS RACE, BUT IS SET BACK FOR FOULING FRISKY.

Meeting Proposed for Mobile to Follow New Orlean -Bringhurst Makes a Winning Debut-Oklahoma Decision Pleases Horsemen.

New Orleans, La., January 12.—The first disqualification here developed with the running of the second race, when Tito, after finishing first in a hard drive over Mary Jay and Frisky, was placed last for subjecting Frisky to interference in the last eighth. Tito's displacement gave the purse to Mary Jay, moved Frisky up into second place and gave J. D. Sugg third money. Tito was probably best and came from a long way back in the stretch, but Collins persisted in allowing the colt to bump Frisky. Collins was suspended for six days by Judge Murphy for rough riding.

Cloudy weather did not have a deterrent effect on the patronage, another generous crowd being on hand. Favorites fared well, most of them accounting for the purses. In the three-quarters handicap Bringhurst made his local debut an auspicious one, for he led all the way and beat Hester Prynne handily.

Solveig, an overwhelming choice, had a narrow escape from defeat in the opener, Silver Sedge only failing to overhaul her by the margin of a nose. Dick Williams, Northlight, Bringhurst and Koyal Meteor were the other winning choices.

After Tribolo's defeat in the third race he was claimed by Emil Herz for $800. W. E. Bernhard also put in a claim for him, out Mr. Herz beat him in the draw.

Mobile, Ala., is after a race meeting. In fact, it is after several meetings and proposes to fill in the time before and after New Orleans each winter and the opening and closing of racing in Maryland and Kentucky. Yesterday a committee of three composed of Frederick Thompson, proprietor of the Mobile Register, Henry Hull, president of the First National Bank, and William B. Ingean, attorney, arrived in the city to ask the co-operation of manager Joseph A. Murphy and steward Thomas C. Campbell in their efforts to establish racing. Mobile is rich in racing traditions, reaching back to before the war. Mr. Thompson, as spokesman for the committee, asked Judge Murphy to take the entire management of the plans to revive racing in the Gulf city. "While I had hoped for a res

NEW YORK TURF GOSSIP OF THE DAY.

York, January 12.—The Jockey Club will a annual meeting tomorrow to conform with hold its annual meeting tomorrow to conform with the corporation laws. It is not expected that any business for the coming racing season will be transacted.

Thomas Monahan, owner of the stallion Textile and nine mares purchased in foal to Textile, reports that all are doing well on the Barbee farm in Kentucky. Mr. Monahan's colors will be seen on the turf again in 1917, when they will be carried by horses of his own breeding.

Andrew Miller, one of the Jockey Club stewards, is traveling in the south for his health. Letters to friends here bring word that he is improving.

MAXIM'S CHOICE IN WINNING FORM.

Havana, Cuba, January 12.—Maxim's Choice scored his thiry victory of the Oriental Park meeting, when he beat some fair sprinters in the third race today and ran three-quarters in 1:114. Well-balanced fields went to the post and interesting contests were the order.

Ausong the visitors was Frank Flood, a recent arrival from New York.

John Walters and Edward Ryan are looked for some day next week. John Cavanaugh may accompany them to Cuba.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

Warstep's New Zealand winnings now total $50,590, which is a record for that country. The schooling list at Juarez includes Zolzo, Pan-hachapi, Kitty Stanfield, Odd Cross and Great Friar.

Racing men wintering at New Orleans will stage a minstrel show for the benefit of charity. Harry Shaw will be manager and George Reardon will act as stage director and interlocutor.

shaw will be manager and George Reardon will act as stage director and interlocutor.

Totalizator investments continue on the up grade at most New Zealand meetings. At the Takapuna Jockey Club's recent meeting the $272,025 invested was $5,670 more than last year, and the sum of $195,695 was put through on the two days of the Forbury Park Trotting Club's fixture at Dunedin. The war tax on dividends at Forbury came to $4,400.

In discussing the effect racing has on mares when they go to the stud, an English authority says it may be taken for granted that training to a reasonable extent tends to the improvement of the breed, and mares which have been trained have a better chance to produce good stock than those which, through lack of training, have never attained to their full development.

In New South Wales one of the conditions on which registration of any race course will be granted by the chief secretary in future is that a cement flooring is to be provided in the weighing room. If this condition is not carried out the license may be withdrawn. This is the outcome of the recent scales-tampering discoveries at country courses in that Australian state.

James Butler has in his stable of this year several two-year-old colts from which much is excourses in that Australian state.

James Butler has in his stable of this year several two-year-old colts from which much is expected. One is a brother to George Smith, but a brown instead of a black. Another is a chestnut son of Ballot—Livonia and so a half-brother to The Finn, the latter, like George Smith, being black in color. Another is a half-brother to Old Rosebud, being a black colt by Star Shoot—Ivory Bells. Old Rosebud is a bay. In these variations there is mental food for coat-color theorists.

Bells. Old Rosebud is a bay. In these variations there is mental food for coat-color theorists.

In a letter to a horseman at New Orleans, Albert Simons, who is wintering a division of the Harry Payne Whitney stable at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ky., writes that Mr. Whitney's representative in the Kentucky Derby next spring will in all probability be Slipshod, which won three races as a two-year-old last year. Simons stated in his communication that this colt was not regarded as within many pounds of Mr. Whitney's crack two-year-olds last year, but that unless Slipshod goes amiss in his training for the Kentucky Derby, he feels certain that the blue jacket and brown cap will be carried by a fast and game candidate.

That Governor Hall could be developed into a turf enthusiast in short order, was evidenced Saturday when he visited the Fair Grounds track and took such a keen interest in the proceedings. He witnessed the first few races from his private box and then went to the judges' stand to greet the officials. As a guest of the stewards he watched the fourth race run from their abode and then he paid the newspapermen a compliment by witnessing the fifth race from the press box. When asked as to how he was enjoying himself and as to what he thinks of the game the way it is conducted here, he said that he was delighted to see the people of New Orleans enjoying themselves, and judging from the crowd that was out he announced that he is of the cpinion that racing is a mighty popular sport here.—New Orleans Times-Picayune.

GREAT TRAINER OF STEEPLECHASERS.

Many men who were originally intended for a certain profession have achieved eminence in another totally different, and among these may be included Robert Gore, the Findon trainer. The idea was that Gore should have a military career, and to this end his studies were directed. That desire was never gratified, however, though he obtained a commission in the militia, in which he served for five years.

Gore eventually took to race riding, and was seen in the saddle at several Irish meetings in the early eighties. Later he took up his abode at Cheltenham, assisting in the training of Mr. Murland's horses. He continued to ride with a fair measure of success, especially in the Midlands. Subsequently he betook himself to the continent, and for several years rode fairly frequently in Germany, Austria and Russia.

On returning to England Gore assisted Garrett and Willie Moore with their training at Winchester and remained in the Hampshire city until 1599, when he acquired a residence called The Downs at Findon, and there he has been ever since. He commenced training on his own account with a small team, chiefly composed of his own possessions; but after a time there were additions sent over from The Curragh by Shanahan. Among these were General Peace, the Lincolnshire Handicap winner, which was also a useful hurdler, Friary and Shipshape.

Gore's fame, however, reached its zenith when he took charge of Sir Charles Assheton-Smitti's horses. The earliest of these included Cackler, Holy War and Jerry M. The first named was a brilliant fencer, while Holy War was well above the average standard. The third, Jerry M., secured his place in history by winning the Grand National of 1912 with 175 pounds in the saddle, having previously run second to Jenkinstown in the race with the same weight.

The Findon trainer also saddled the "National" winner of 1913, Coverteoat, which beat Irish Mail wa distance, with the remounted Careey—the only with 175 pounds in the same, run second to Jenkinstown in the race with the same weight.

The Findon trainer also saddled the "National" winner of 1913, Covertcoat, which beat Irish Mail by a distance, with the remounted Carsey—the only other runner to complete the course—a long way in the rear. Gore was hopeful of winning his third consecutive "National" with Covertcoat last year, but though the son of Hackler managed to complete the course he was last of those which thus distinguished themselves, the race being easily won by Sunloch, which was subsequently purchased by the late Sir C. Assheton-Smith, and was placed under Gore's charge. Gore still has a strong team, and should be heard of again during the winter campaign.—London Sporting Life.

RACING OF A GRAND FRENCH MARE.

It is curious to contemplate the stud careers of some of the mares which were most famous on the turf, and amongst them may surely be indeed M. Bony's French-bred mare, Plaisanterie, which was a top-sawyer as a three-year-old, when she wound up a brilliant season by winning the Cesarewitch and Cambridgeshire, the one under 106 pounds, and the other under 124 pounds, In each as Florence, Althorp, Kinsky, Raffaelo and Engueror, Thebais, Prism, Despair, Duke of Richard and Indian an Topiary, by Orme, in spite of many attempts, only won one race for Lord Hamilton of Dalzell, who sold her with a colt foal by Bushey Park, and covered by Melton, to go to America in 1906, when Mr. A. ### TALK OF THE TRACK AT JUAREZ.

El Paso, Texas, January 12.—Two more carloads of horses the property of one horse owners have left for Tia Juana.

The draft that was being sent here by George H. Strate, trainer of the Wingfield string at Now Orleans, for the services of jockey W. Brazel was the registered mail pouch that was robbed by a lone bandit near San Antonio, Texas. January 5.

F. F. Borland has taken over the contract of jockey Mason from W. E. Cushman. Mason is a native of Montana.

There is no truth in the report that the car load of horses billed to O. Rice and going to Tia Juana was held up at Tueson.

While schooling Eleanor Marie at the rate vesterday, the filly fell and jockey McCabe slightly injured his arm and side.
